Sacrifice (words and music by Lamb) He fought so strong for our race. We're finally back in our place. It took his life, my dear son, and now it's over the war is won. Our Race was saved because the lives that were sacrificed: those men that died... Chorus Sacrifice, they gave their lives. All those men who have died. Sacrifice, they gave their lives, all those men who have died. Warrior poet, I sing his songs. Ian Stuart, with his voice so strong. Remember his words, as we sing along. Rudolph Hess, man of Peace. He wouldn't give up and he wouldn't cease, to give his loyalty to our Cause. Remember him and give a pause. Robert Matthews knew the Truth. He knew what he had to do. He set an example with Courage so bold. We'll never let that fire grow cold. Dr Pierce, a man so wise, helped so many of us open our eyes, and see the future for what it could be: a future for our Race's eternity.	Panzerlied Ob's stürmt oder schneit, Ob die Sonne uns lacht, Der Tag glühend heiß Oder eiskalt die Nacht. Bestaubt sind die Gesichter, Doch froh ist unser Sinn, Ist unser Sinn; Es braust unser Panzer Im Sturmwind dahin. The Snow Fell (by Ian Stuart) He sat in a room in a square the color of blood. He'd rule the whole world if there was a way that he could. He'd sit and he'd stare at the minarets on top of the towers, for he was the Beast as he hatched his new plan to gain power. Chorus : And the snow fell, covering the Dreams and Ideals. And the snow fell, freezing the Blood and the wheels. And the snow fell, they had to keep warm for survival. And the snow fell, and defeated the Beast's only rivals. They took the old roads that Napoleon
